LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES. June 3, 1882. For the Middle Atlantic States threatening weather and rain, southerly winds, shifting to west and northward, falling barometer and rising temperature to-day, and falling temperature on Sunday.

THE REFORM CLUB MEETING.—A PUBLIC FOUNTAIN. At the meeting of the Reform Club last night Mr. Rastell, of Kansas, gave his views at length on the prohibition law of his State. He said that the law was not a complete success, owing to the efforts of the whiskey men outside of the State to break it down. At the conclusion of Mr. Rastell's remarks there was some debate over the proposition to establish a public drinking fountain in the city. One member suggested that the fountain be placed on State's Hill. Rev. Dr. Poulson favored a fountain, and jokingly suggested that it be placed near the Gazette office. Finally a committee of three, consisting of O. F. Baggett, Henry Beach and James Grigg, was appointed to take the matter into consideration and report at the next meeting of the club. After the transaction of some routine business, the meeting adjourned.

The reporter asked one of the leaders of the temperance party last night what was the necessity of employing counsel to prosecute the violators of the Sunday law before the Corporation Court? He replied that if the licenses of the parties to be presented were revoked, they would immediately apply through friends for new licenses. This the temperance lawyer would endeavor to prevent by asking a postponement of the granting of the new licenses until a petition protesting against the reopening of the saloons could be circulated among the citizens residing in the neighborhoods of the said saloons.

AROUND THE WHARVES.—The Georgetown Dredging Machine, and the steam tug George W. Fiddle are on the ways at Messrs. J. P. Agnew & Co's. ship yard undergoing repairs.

The schooner Kitty Ann, Capt. Wm. Laycock, is being repaired at Dean & Dishman's Ship Yard.

At the new ship yard of the Potomac Manufacturing Company a number of laborers were at work this morning unloading from the steamer the stone which arrived yesterday. This stone is to be used in building foundations and a stone wall around the new yard.

The steam tug Juno has gone to Baltimore and the other tug boats belonging to this city are anxiously awaiting the arrival of coal from Cumberland.

PORTNER'S BREWERY.—During the past year Mr. Robert Portner has made improvements to his brewery in this city, amounting to about sixty thousand dollars. These improvements, which embrace a new ice house and machinery, a boarding house for the employees, and a residence for the superintendent of the brewing department, have all been completed, making the establishment the best arranged of the kind for its size in the country. The already large business of the brewery is constantly increasing, as the frequent enlargements of the producing capacity attest. Already arrangements are being made for extensive additions next fall.

ARREST OF AN EMBEZZLER.—Charles E. Caphart, who was arrested at Arlington, Alexandria county, yesterday morning by Detective McElfresh, of Washington, and Deputy Marshal I. C. O'Neal, of this city, was arraigned in the Criminal Court of Washington yesterday afternoon on two charges of embezzlement from a pawnbroker of that city. His recognizance for $250 was taken, with Felix May as surety in one case, and in the other case his personal recognizance for the same amount was accepted.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR.—Mrs. Margaret Hunter, residing at Cedar Hill, Fairfax county, Va., was tendered last night, by her children and other relatives, a surprise party, the occasion being her sixtieth birthday. A large company was present and a most enjoyable time was had. Numerous presents were made. Mrs. Hunter's many friends in this city join with her relations and friends in the country, in wishing her many years more of happiness.

COMPLIMENTARY.—The Hannibal, Mo., Sunday Times highly compliments Prof. Job G. McVeigh, formerly of this city, at present a teacher in the High School in that place. It says: "Prof. McVeigh, standing at the head of his profession as a teacher, has made of our High School an institution equal to the best in the State, and our people are proud of its success and embrace every opportunity of giving countenance and encouragement to his faithful labors."

THE MARKET.—The market was well supplied this morning. Strawberries sold at 25c per box, green peas 25a30c per peck, tomatoes 20c per box, string beans 60c per peck, cabbage 10a12c per head, cymblins 60c per dozen, cucumbers 60c per dozen, asparagus 7c per bunch, beets 5a6c per bunch, bell-peppers 5c for two bunches, onions 5c, but-ter 22a24c per pound, eggs 22a25c per dozen. The prices for all other articles were unchanged.

THE W. & W. R. R.—Mr. D. W. Nicholson, of North Carolina, has been appointed master of construction of the Washington and Western (late W. & O.) R. R. Mr. Nicholson has made a trip of inspection over the road, and will shortly start out with a material train and a number of laborers for the purpose of making some repairs, which are said to be much needed along the route.

PERSONAL.—The Misses Arline and Jesse Easton, of Jersey City, are visiting their friends, the Misses Evans, corner Wolfe and St. Asaph streets.

A. A. Wise, esq., formerly of this city, but now of Gold Hill, Nevada, is here on a visit to his relatives and friends.

Dr. Gilmer, the rejoiner Postmaster of Richmond, was in this city to-day.

POLICE NEWS.—Susan Skelton, the niece of one of the women fined yesterday for unseemly conduct on the streets, and Lue Taylor, two colored girls, were the only occupants of the station house cells to-day. These girls were arrested for disorderly conduct and abusive language on the streets. The investigation of the charges against them did not take place until this afternoon.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

All the public school teachers were paid off to-day for the month of May.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to John A. Nightingale and Ida Bailey, of this city.

The Alexandria Dramatic Company will present "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" on the 17th instant, at Occoquan, for the benefit of the Reform Club at that place.

The American Farmer of Baltimore contains the prize essay on "Mixed Farming," written by W. H. Snowden, of Collingwood, Fairfax county.

The match game of base ball between a nine of the Base Ball Association and the wagon drivers of the city yesterday afternoon resulted as follows: Association nine 12, drivers 8.

At the Methodist Episcopal Church to-morrow communion and other interesting services will be held at 11 a. m., and at 8 p. m. the pastor, Rev. Dr. Poulson, will preach on "Spiritualism."

The services in the Baptist Church in this city will be conducted to-morrow morning and night by delegates from the Baptist Association which has been in session in Warrenton during the past week.

A tug boat ran over a small boat opposite the railroad ferry, upset it, and threw its two occupants into the river, this evening. Boats from the shore rescued the drowning men.

A large number of the preachers and lay delegates to the Baptist Convention, which adjourned in Warrenton yesterday, arrived here to-day on their way to their homes. Among them were Rev. Dr. Curry, of Richmond, and Rev. Dr. Broadus.

The strawberries and cauliflowers for sale by Mr. Oliver Pulman at his stand in the market this morning were the prettiest things there, flowers not excepted. Mr. P. for a number of years has had the largest and most delicious strawberries brought to this market.

There were over twenty sturgeon in one boat at Fishtown this morning. One party—a ship-carpenter by trade—says he caught sixteen sturgeon yesterday in one drift of the net. So elated is the ship-carpenter-fisherman with his success that he has filled all the lower section of the city with his adventures among the monsters of the Potomac. He always winds up his narrative with "this is no fish story either."

Mr. George L. Summers, formerly of this city, but now of Barnesville, Ga., has presented to the Relief Hook and Ladder Co., through his brother, Mr. C. J. W. Summers, a photograph of the members of the J. Davis Fire Company, the champion company of the State of Georgia.

This afternoon the United States steamer Dispatch, on her way to the Washington navy yard, stopped in the river off this city and signaled for a pilot. Two pilots, John Kelly and William Treake, immediately started in small boats for the steamer. When near the steamer Capt. Kelly's boat was seized by a squall of wind, and Capt. Treake, meeting with no accident, reached the Dispatch safely and carried her to the navy yard. Capt. Kelly was rescued by parties who went to his assistance from the shore.
